NTRglobal Launches Operations in the Middle East Company Announces the Opening of Its Ninth International Office in Dubai

Dallas, May 16, 2007 – NTRglobal, a leading provider of highly secure remote support and access solutions, today announced the launch of its Middle Eastern operations with the opening of its ninth international office in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

This new international branch furthers NTRglobal's business expansion abroad to include 49 countries. The company currently serves more than 8,000 clients, an increase of 80 percent compared to its client base last year.

"Because of the tremendous business potential in the region, specifically with small and medium-sized businesses, we are confident our offices in this area will greatly enhance our entire company's annual growth," said Andre Angel, CEO and president of NTRglobal North America. "NTRglobal has experienced strong growth since its inception in 2000, and is fast becoming a leader in the on-demand technical support solutions market."

The Dubai office will support all NTRglobal activity in the United Arab Emirates, Saudi Arabia, Bahrain, Qatar and Oman. The estimated market potential for NTRglobal's solutions is more than 13,000 local companies. NTRglobal currently has customers in the fastest-growing sectors in this region: telecommunications, transport, banking, finance and tourism. Customers there include Vodafone, Airbus, ING and TUI.
